

Huckleberry Hill Elementary School

Brookfield, Connecticut

The new elementary school at Huckleberry Hill called for custom, recessed, choral risers in their performance area. This allows flexibility during their student productions. Irwin customized the risers so that the three tiers can be stacked and stored underneath the stage when they are not in use. Corbin Seating Company furnished and installed these assemblies into the elementary school gymnasium.

Completed: February 2024

Contact: Jon Jackopsic, W.J. Mountford Company

